

TCRWP 2022 Summer School Subscriptions Terms and Conditions

- Subscriptions may not be shared. Each teacher must have an individual subscription to access and teach the curriculum.
- Subscriptions may be activated beginning on May 2, 2022. All subscriptions ordered after May 2, 2022 begin on the date of purchase and end on September 2, 2022.
- The summer school curriculum requires access to trade books. Trade book packs, including titles referenced for instruction, are available for purchase through Heinemann. In addition, students will need access to robust classroom libraries. See the Required and Recommended Trade Book List for more information.
- Returns and exchanges of subscription activation codes will be accepted ONLY prior to activation and must be requested by May 2, 2022, or within two weeks of receipt of your order, whichever is later.
- Heinemann customer service will assist schools and districts with requests to correct teacher registration errors only if those requests are received within one week of activation.
